B.5 Adoption of the secondary reference substance

The report of the collaborative trial to establish the secondary reference standard is submitted to the appropriate national or regional body to approve the secondary standard for the uses described.